

Just heard of the LPFM which would possibly have priority over local FM translators in our area. K-Love is on one of those translators. We have no other access to a station like this except for K-Love. K-LOVE is one of the most positive/family oriented stations that we can listen to. They also support/promote local family concerts. I can't imagine life without K-LOVE